Abstraksi :

Translation process is a process of transferring meaning from the source language into the target language. In this field report paper, the writer focuses her analysis on news broadcasting field because the writer wants to know the implication of translating, writing, journalism, and television in the real field. The writer uses field research and library research as the method. The writer choose PT. LATIVI Media Karya News Department because this is a new TV station that give large space for the writer to learn as a student of faculty of letters. The process of translating the English news begins from receiving the materials from the wires, previewing the materials, translating the story, dubbing process, until this materials is ready to broadcast on TV.
