This research paper is about Emmas lives that had lived nearly twenty-one years in the world very little to distress or vex her. Her friends and neighbors are good, very lovely, humble, care, respect one to another. Emma schemes to find a suitable husband for her pliant friend Harriet, only to discover that she understands the feelings of others as little as she does her own heart. In this science research paper, the writer is analyzing Emmas character and her relations to the society.
